CAS Trips Peru

Accommodation

Homestay in Kuyoc Chico-Pisac

Students: 3-4 bed single-gender rooms with shared bathroom

Teachers: private double rooms with en suite

Our guests will get the chance to fully immerse themselves into Quechua life by enjoying a two-night homestay in the stunning surroundings of the Sacred Valley. Students will share rooms in these traditionally built houses that resemble comfortable hostels. To complete this unique experience, students and teachers will partake in community activities like a group cooking challenge.

Central Cuzco and central Aguas Calientes

Students: 4-6 bed single-gender rooms

Teachers: private single rooms

While in Cuzco and Aguas Calientes, the group will stay in comfortable and secure hostels or hotels. The size of the group will determine which of our selected hotels or hostels we use. Each one has been carefully selected to give guests a comfortable and safe stay with a hearty breakfast and excellent local amenities.

Transport

Flights

From Comodoro Arturo Merino Benítez International Airport, Santiago, Chile to Alejandro Velasco Astete International Airport, Cuzco, Peru should be arranged by the school's travel agent.

Airport transfer and from Cuzco to Pisac

Turismo Rayo Expreso S.A.C. (<http://www.turismorayo.com/>)

Clothing list

The weather in Cuzco and the Sacred Valley varies between rainy and dry season. The temperature ranges from 13-23 degrees Celsius with possible rain so students should bring warm and waterproof clothing.

Students will be active every day and should pack good, comfortable sports shoes for walking and appropriate clothing for sunshine, rain, warm and cold.

Due to the variable weather conditions, we highly recommend packing:

Rainproof jacket

Gloves

Scarf

Thick Socks

Sunhat

Long thin trousers

Warm clothes

Shorts and T-shirt

Walking boots
